

EF Economics & Law

In EF Economics & Law, students focus on subject specific models and ways of thinking, in order to understand and explain economic, business and legal issues. The EF gives an insight into various areas, the contents of which are indicated below. It covers many of the same topics as the SF, but in less depth.

Business Administration

- Business models
- Organization
- Objectives of businesses
- Marketing
- Finance
- Human Resources
- Securities
- Function of the Stock Exchange

Accounting

- Double entry bookkeeping
- Sales pricing
- Value added taxation
- Depreciation
- Impairment losses
- Balance and income statements
- Balance sheet analysis

Economics

- Gross domestic product
- Economic cycle
- State of the economy
- Inflation
- Monetary policy
- Unemployment
- Economic systems
- Globalization
- International organizations
- The European Union

Law

- Swiss civil code
- Procedural requirements
- Purchase contracts
- Problems fulfilling contracts
- Employment contracts/leases
- Marriage law
- Corporate law
- Casestudies